

Inquiries with increased security requirements

Do you have a project that needs to be handled at a special level of secrecy?

Here you will find the right way. Please inform us officially under the keyword "secret", that you would like to go this way with us for a fee.

If this is not the case, every project we do together with you will be according to the project process described in our integrated management system and with the appropriate care in handling your data.

For us, a special level of confidentiality means

- access to your request to a restricted group of persons
- evaluation of your inquiry exclusively & only by HEINRICHS GmbH & Co. KG

Please send your project-related non-disclosure agreement in advance to the following address:

anfragen@heinrichs-gmbh.de

After receiving your e-mail we will inform you about our essential steps in handling with your data.

If you have any further questions, you can contact Mr. Oliver Müller by telephone.
